conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

B. The proposed Auction and Sale Hearing Notice and the Assumption and Assignment Notice, as set forth in the Motion and this Order, are appropriate, sufficient, and reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice of the Auction, the Stalking Horse APA, the Sale Hearing, the Bidding Procedures, and the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, and no other or further notice shall be required for the Sale or the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts.

C. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient reasons for this Court to grant the relief requested in the Motion, including (i) approving the Bid Procedures; (ii) scheduling the Auction and the Sale Hearing; (iii) approving the Sale Notice; (iv) authorizing the Debtors to enter into the Stalking Horse APA and approving the related Bid Protections, in the exercise of the Debtors' reasonable business judgment; and (v) approving procedures for the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts, including the Assumption Notice. The entry of this Order is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and other parties in interest.

D. The Bid Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 1 are reasonable, appropriate and represent the best method for maximizing value for the benefit of the Debtors, their estates, and their creditors. The Bid Procedures were negotiated at arm's length, in good faith, and without collusion. The Bid Procedures are reasonably designed to attract value-maximizing proposals beneficial to the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest.

E. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling and sound business justifications for approval of, and authorization to perform under, that certain Asset Purchase Agreement acceptable to the Debtors (the “Stalking Horse APA”) by and among the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Stalking Horse APA, including the Break-up Fee and Expense Reimbursement (the “Bid Protections”), represents the highest or otherwise best offer the Debtors have received to date as a result of their efforts to market the Purchased Assets for sale. The approval of the relief requested is a necessary constructive step toward completion of the sale process. The Stalking Horse APA and the Bid Protections allow the Debtors to solicit the highest or otherwise best bid for their assets through the Bid Procedures.

F. The Stalking Horse Bidder is not an “insider” or “affiliate” of any of the Debtors, as those terms are defined in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, and no common identity of incorporators, directors, or controlling stockholders exists between the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtors. The Stalking Horse Bidder and its counsel and advisors have acted in “good faith” within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Stalking Horse Bidder’s negotiation of the Stalking Horse APA, subject to (i) compliance with the Bid Procedures and (ii) entry of the Sale Order.

G. The Bid Protections, as set forth in the Stalking Horse APA, are: (i) an actual and necessary cost of preserving the Debtors' estates within the meaning of sections 503(b)(1)(A) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) fair, reasonable and appropriate and designed to maximize the value of the Purchased Assets for the benefit of the Debtors' estate by, among other things, facilitating further competitive bidding for same; (iii) commensurate to the real and substantial benefits conferred upon the Debtors' estates by the Stalking Horse Bidder; (iv) reasonable and appropriate in light of the size and nature of the proposed sale contemplated by the Stalking Horse APA, the commitments that have been made by the Stalking Horse Bidder, and the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (v) necessary to induce the Stalking Horse Bidder to continue to pursue such sale and continue to be bound by the Stalking Horse APA and a condition of the Stalking Horse Bidder's execution of the Stalking Horse APA.

H. The Bid Protections, to the extent payable under the Stalking Horse APA, pursuant to sections 105(a), 365(c)(1), 503(b), and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, are an administrative expense claim against each of the Debtors' estates.

I. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient reasons for authorizing and approving the Bidding Procedures, which are fair, reasonable, and appropriate under the circumstances and in the best interests of the Debtors' estates.

may be assumed by the Debtors and assigned to the Winning Bidder, provided that the Debtors shall segregate the Cure Payment that the Assumed Contract Counterparty asserts is required to be paid, pending a resolution of the dispute by the Court or mutual agreement by the parties. Any objection to the proposed assumption and assignment of a Contract or related Cure Payment proposed in connection with the Sale Transaction that remains unresolved as of the Sale Hearing, shall be heard at such Sale Hearing (or at a later date as fixed by the Court).

- g. Contract Assumption. Except as set forth pursuant to subparagraph (f) above, no Contract shall be deemed assumed and assigned pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code until the date the Sale Transaction has closed or, if later, the date the Court has entered an order assuming and assigning such Contract.

26. The Stalking Horse APA, acceptable to the Debtors, shall be binding and enforceable on the parties thereto in accordance with its terms. The failure to describe specifically or include any provision of the Stalking Horse APA or related documents in the Motion or herein shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision. 27. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Order, this Order does not approve the Sale of the Purchased Assets under the Stalking Horse APA or authorize the consummation of the Sale, such approval and authorization (if any) to be considered only at the Sale Hearing and all rights of all parties in interest to object to such approval and authorization are reserved.

33. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Motion.

34. The Debtors have demonstrated that without the approval of the Bidding Procedures and the timelines contemplated therein, the Debtors' businesses will deteriorate to the detriment of all stakeholders, including the Debtors' creditors and its customers. Further, such harm cannot not be redressed by a legal or equity remedy. Accordingly, the Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a).

On July 1, 2025 the Debtors filed the *Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Designating a Stalking Horse Bidder and Stalking Horse Bidder Protections, (II) Approving Bidding Procedures by Which Interested Parties May Bid and an Auction Sale Format in Connection With the Sale of Substantially All of the Debtors’ Assets, (III) Approving Form of Asset Purchase Agreement, (IV) Approving Form of Notice to be Provided to Interested Parties, (V) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Assumed Contracts and Notice Procedures Thereto, (VI) Scheduling a Court Hearing to Consider Approval of the Sale to the Highest and Best Bidder, and (VII) Authorizing the Sale of the Debtors’ Property Free and Clear of All Causes of Action and Claims*² [ECF No. 228] (the “Motion”), seeking approval of, among other things, the procedures contained herein (the “Bidding Procedures”).

which the court approved these Bidding Procedures. These Bidding Procedures set forth the process by which the Debtors are authorized to solicit bids for and conduct an auction (the “Auction”) for a sale (the “Sale”) of substantially all of their Assets.

In the exercise of their good faith reasonable business judgment, the Debtors have executed an Asset Purchase Agreement that is acceptable to the Debtors (including all exhibits, schedules, and addenda thereto, the “Stalking Horse APA”), with FlexGen Power Systems, LLC (“FlexGen” or “the “Stalking Horse Bidder”). Under the Stalking Horse APA, the Stalking Horse Bidder proposes to (i) purchase, acquire, and take assignment and delivery of the Purchased Assets (as defined in the Stalking Horse APA) and (ii) assume certain Assumed Liabilities (as defined in the Stalking Horse APA), each as specifically enumerated in the Stalking Horse APA and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein.

The Sale will be implemented pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Copies of the Order or any other documents in the Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases are available upon request to Verita Global by calling (866) 507-8031 (U.S./Canada) or (781) 575-2122 (international) or by visiting the Debtors’ restructuring website at: <https://www.veritaglobal.net/powin>.

I. Assets to be Auctioned.

1. The Debtors are seeking to sell all of their Assets, either as a going-concern or otherwise. Pursuant to these Bidding Procedures, the Debtors will determine the highest or otherwise best offer for the sale of the Purchased Assets and, if applicable, other of the Debtors’ assets. The Debtors reserve the right to sell their Assets to multiple Qualified Bidders in separate lots and the right to link Qualified Bids together.

2. These Assets are being sold free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances to the greatest extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and applicable non-bankruptcy law.

II. Stalking Horse Bidder.

3. FlexGen shall be deemed the Stalking Horse Bidder in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse APA, which conditions FlexGen’s Bid upon it being deemed the Stalking Horse Bidder. Under the Stalking Horse APA, the price (“Purchase Price”) for the sale of the Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder is $36,000,000.00 in cash, $3,600,000 of which is to be deposited in an escrow account upon the signing of the Stalking Horse APA.

4. The Stalking Horse Bidder will be granted certain bidding protections, including a breakup fee (the “Break-Up Fee”) of $1,100,000 and an Expense Reimbursement of up to $500,000.

III. Public Announcement of Auction and Sale Hearing.

5. As soon as practicable after entry of the Order, the Debtors shall (a) serve on the Notice Parties³ (i) notices setting forth the (1) date, time, and place of the (A) Auction and (B) Sale Hearing, and (2) the deadlines and procedures for objecting to the Sale Transaction, and (ii) the Order, and (iii) the Bidding Procedures.

IV. Potential Bidder Requirements.

6. To participate in the bidding process or otherwise be considered for any purpose hereunder, including to receive access to due diligence materials, a person or entity interested in purchasing the Assets or part of the Assets (a “Potential Bidder”) (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) must deliver or have previously delivered to proposed counsel to the Debtors:

- a. An executed confidentiality agreement (a “Confidentiality Agreement”) in form and substance acceptable to the Debtors;
- b. Sufficient information that the Potential Bidder has sufficient cash on hand or has received sufficient non-contingent debt and/or equity funding commitments to consummate a purchase of the Assets subject to the contemplated Bid; provided that this and any other consultation rights provided to the Committee in these Bidding Procedures shall exclude any member of the Committee that is actively participating in the bidding process and any such Committee member shall not receive any information on account of its membership in the Committee that it would not otherwise be entitled to receive as a Potential Bidder;
- c. A statement detailing whether the Potential Bidder is partnering with or otherwise working with any other interested party in connection with the potential submission of a joint Bid, the identity of any such party or parties, and a concise description of the nature of such partnership or joint Bid to the extent reasonably practicable; and

- d. On or before July 16, 2025, parties must submit a non-binding Indication of Interest to proposed counsel for the Debtors for the Assets. An Indication of Interest must include (1) the proposed structure of the transaction and assets to be purchased, purchase price and any material terms; (2) a description of the acquiring entity and relevant experience; (3) disclosure of any of the potential bidder's connections with the debtors, the debtors' officers and directors, or other potential bidders; (4) disclosure of the identity of any entity that holds a "substantial interest" in the potential bidder (as defined in 31 CFR § 800.244); (5) evidence of financial capacity to complete the transaction; (6) authority and approval to complete the transaction; (7) a detailed description of the due diligence information and / or investigation you may require to submit a Bid; (8) a proposed timetable for consummating the transaction; and (9) contact information for the Potential Bidder.

7. Any bidder that is a party to a confidentiality agreement with the Debtors as of the Petition Date must submit a Qualified Bid for the Assets by the Bid Deadline for Qualified Bids.

8. The Debtors will determine and notify each Potential Bidder whether the Potential Bidder has submitted adequate documents so that such Potential Bidder may proceed to conduct due diligence and submit a bid (such Potential Bidder an "Acceptable Bidder").

V. Qualified Bid Requirements.

9. To participate in the Auction, each Acceptable Bidder must deliver to the Debtors and their above-referenced proposed counsel an irrevocable offer for the purchase of some or all of the Assets provided that such offer will be either higher or better than the bid submitted by the Stalking Horse Bidder and must provide consideration to the Debtors of at least $38.32 million (the sum of (i) the Stalking Horse Bidder Purchase Price, (ii) the Bid Protections; and (iii) the Minimum Overbid Increment (as defined below)).

- a. Each Bid must clearly state: (i) the particular Assets to be purchased (ii) the liabilities and obligations to be assumed, including any debt and cure costs to be assumed, and (iii) the Contracts to be assumed by the bidder;
- b. Provide a clean and marked-up copy of the proposed asset purchase agreement against the Stalking Horse APA;
- c. Provide a copy of the draft Sale Order marked-up to reflect any amendments and modifications compared to the form of the Sale Order posted in the Debtors' on-line data room;

- d. Each Bid by an Acceptable Bidder must clearly set forth the purchase price to be paid (“Purchase Price”) and identify the cash and/or non-cash components of the Purchase Price. The Purchase Price should be a single point value in U.S. Dollars for the applicable Assets on a cash-free, debt-free basis. Any bid for substantially all of the Assets must also include a statement as to whether the bid is conditioned on purchasing all Assets or whether the Qualified Bid should be viewed as separate bid for one or more sets of Assets. The Debtors reserve the right to ask any Acceptable Bidder to further allocate the value ascribed to a bid for any particular Asset and to inquire about any significant assumptions on which such valuations are based beyond information provided in the applicable bid;
- e. Each Bid must include a proposed Purchase Price of at least $38,320,000 for the Assets;
- f. A good faith deposit (“Deposit”) by wire transfer in an amount equal in an amount equal to 10% of the proposed Purchase Price;
- g. A Qualified Bid, other than the Stalking Horse Bidder’s bid, must include a statement that the bid does not entitle the bidding party to a break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement, or similar type of payment or reimbursement and a waiver of any substantial contribution administrative expense claim under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code related to bidding for the applicable Assets;
- h. Bids may not be conditioned on the obtaining or sufficiency of financing or the completion of due diligence. Only financially qualified parties will be eligible to participate in the Auction – with financially qualified parties to mean parties who have demonstrated that they have financial means to consummate their purchase of the Assets without financing unless the financing to be used by them is already committed (meaning that any Overbid may not contain any financing contingency). All diligence must be completed before the Bid Deadline;
- i. Each bid must include a statement that the Bid is formal, binding, and unconditional, is not subject to any further due diligence or financing contingency, and is irrevocable until the Debtors notify the Potential Bidder that such Bid is not the Winning Bid or a Back-Up Bid, or with respect to a Back-Up Bid until the earlier of (a) the first business day after the closing of the Sale with the Winning Bidder for the Assets bid upon by such Back-up Bidder or (b) 60 days after entry of an order approving the Sale with the Winning Bidder for the Assets bid upon by such Back-Up Bidder;
- j. Each bid must contain evidence that the Acceptable Bidder has obtained the necessary authorizations or approvals, as required by that Acceptable Bidder’s governing documents, with respect to the submission of the bid and the consummation of the Sale Transaction;

- k. Each bid must include a statement or evidence reflecting (i) that the Bidder is prepared to consummate the transaction upon entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the Sale to the Winning Bidder (the “Sale Order”) and consummation shall not be contingent on obtaining requisite government, regulatory, or other third-party approvals, (ii) the government, regulatory, or other third-party approvals that will be required for the Bidder to consummate the Sale; (iii) that the Bidder has made or will make as soon as reasonably practicable all necessary filings, if any, with respect to any regulatory, antitrust and other laws and pay the fees associated therewith; and (iv) the Bidder’s plan and ability to obtain all requisite governmental, regulatory, or other third party approvals (including, without limitation, CFIUS approvals), and the proposed timing for the Bidder to undertake the actions required to obtain such approvals, if any;
- l. Each bid must include written evidence that demonstrates that the Bidder has the necessary financial ability to consummate the contemplated Sale and comply with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, including providing adequate assurance of future performance under all contracts to be assumed and assigned in such Sale, including that such Bidder has all authorizations and registrations necessary to perform the Contracts to be assumed by the Bidder, as well as a confirmation that the Bidder is in compliance with any applicable NERC requirements necessary to perform the Contracts to be assumed by the Bidder. Such information must include, inter alia, the following:
 - i. Contact names and information for verification of financing sources;
 - ii. Evidence of Bidder’s internal resources and proof of unconditional debt funding commitments from a recognized banking institution and, if applicable, equity commitments in an aggregate amount equal to the cash portion of such bid or the posting of an irrevocable letter of credit from a recognized banking institution issued in favor of the Debtors in the amount of the cash portion of such bid, in each case, as are needed to consummate such Sale;
 - iii. The Bidder’s current financial statements (audited if they exist) or other similar financial information reasonably acceptable to the Debtors;
 - iv. A description of the Bidder’s pro forma capital structure; and
 - v. Any such other form of financial disclosure or credit-quality support information or enhancement demonstrating that such Bidder has the ability to consummate the contemplated Sale.
- m. Each bid must contain an acknowledgement in writing that the bidder (a) has not engaged in any collusion with respect to any bids or the Sale, specifying that it did not agree with any Qualified Bidders or Potential Bidders to control price, (b) agrees not to engage in any collusion with respect to any bids, the Auction, or the Sale, and (c) by submitting a bid is agreeing, and shall be deemed to have agreed,

(i) to abide by and honor the terms of these Bidding Procedures, and (ii) after the conclusion of the Auction, if any, not to submit a bid, or seek to reopen the Auction.

- n. Each Bid must include a statement that, in the event the Debtors select the Bidder to serve as the Winning Bidder or the Back-Up Bidder (as defined below), such Qualified Bidder's offer is irrevocable until two (2) business days after the closing of the Transaction. Each Bidder must acknowledge that by submitting a Bid, the Bidder agrees to be a Back-Up Bidder in accordance with the terms of these Bid Procedures, should the Bid be so selected.
- o. Each Bid must provide that the Debtors have the right to pursue all available damages in the event of the Bidder's breach of, or failure to perform under, the Proposed Agreement.
- p. Each Bid shall be based on the Stalking Horse Bid and must exceed, either on its own terms or, in the case of a Bid for a portion or subset of the Debtors' assets, in combination with another Qualified Bid(s) (which combination shall be done by the Debtors), the Stalking Horse Bid in relation to the Purchased Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, joint Bids submitted by multiple Bidders will not be considered.
- q. A Bid by a Bidder must be reasonably likely to be consummated, if selected as the Winning Bid, within a time frame acceptable to the Debtors.
- r. Acceptable Bidders must only submit bids in good faith and as bona fide offers to consummate the Sale Transaction.

10. Other than the Stalking Horse Bid, only Bids fulfilling all of the preceding requirements contained in this section may, unless otherwise determined in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Committee, be deemed to be "Qualified Bids," and only those parties submitting Qualified Bids shall be deemed to be "Qualified Bidders."

11. For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder and the Stalking Horse APA shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bid.

12. The Debtors reserve the right to exclude any party (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) from the Auction if the Debtors determine, in their reasonable business judgment that such party did not submit a Qualified Bid (including solely because such party did not put forward a good faith Bid).

13. In advance of the commencement of the Auction, as is reasonably practicable, the Debtors shall determine, in consultation with the Committee, which Acceptable Bidders are Qualified Bidders and will notify the Acceptable Bidders whether bids submitted constitute Qualified Bids, which will enable such Qualified Bidders to participate in such Auction. Any bid that is not deemed a Qualified Bid shall not be considered by the Debtors; provided that if the Debtors receive a bid prior to the applicable Bid Deadline that does not satisfy the requirements of a Qualified Bid, the Debtors may provide the Acceptable Bidder with the opportunity to remedy any deficiencies prior to the applicable Auction.

14. Nothing in these Bidding Procedures shall impair or otherwise affect the rights of any secured creditor that is an Acceptable Bidder to credit bid all or any portion of such secured creditor's secured claims subject to the provisions of section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that any such Bid is submitted in accordance with these Bidding Procedures.

VI. Right to Credit Bid.

15. Any Qualified Bidder who has a valid, undisputed, and perfected lien on any Assets (a "Secured Creditor") shall have the right, if any, to credit bid all or a portion of such Secured Creditor's allowed secured claims subject to the provisions of section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that a credit bid shall not constitute a Qualified Bid if the bid does not include a cash component sufficient to pay in full, in cash, all claims for which there are valid, perfected, and unavoidable liens on any of the Assets included in such bid that are senior in priority to those of the party seeking to credit bid (unless such senior lien holder consents to alternative treatment). All rights to credit bid shall be subject to the terms of the DIP Orders and the provisions of section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code. For the avoidance of doubt, a Secured Creditor shall be required to provide cash consideration in respect of any assets to be acquired but that do not constitute collateral securing such Secured Creditor's claim(s), if any.

16. In the event of a competing Qualified Bid, the Stalking Horse Bidder will be entitled, but not obligated, to submit overbids and will have the right, if any, in any such overbids to credit bid subject to the provisions of section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code: (a) all or a portion of the value of the secured portion of its claims subject to the provisions of section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) the value of the Bid Protections.

VII. Obtaining Due Diligence Access.

17. Only Acceptable Bidders shall be eligible to receive due diligence information. No Acceptable Bidder shall be permitted to conduct any due diligence without entry into a Confidentiality Agreement. If an Acceptable Bidder was already subject to a Confidentiality Agreement with the Debtors as of the Petition Date, that Confidentiality Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms.

18. Beginning on the date the Debtors enter into a Confidentiality Agreement with an Acceptable Bidder, the Debtors may provide such Acceptable Bidder with access to an electronic data room and reasonable due diligence information, as requested by such Acceptable Bidder, as soon as reasonably practicable after such request. The Debtors shall post substantially all written due diligence provided to any Acceptable Bidder to the Debtors' electronic dataroom for the benefit of all applicable bidders.

19. The Debtors shall provide the Stalking Horse Bidder with access to all written due diligence materials, written management presentations, and other written information provided to any Potential Bidder or Qualified Bidder that were not previously made available to the Stalking Horse Bidder promptly with the provision of such information or materials to such Potential Bidder or Qualified Bidder, as applicable.

20. Potential Bidders will not, directly or indirectly, contact or initiate or engage in discussions in respect of matters relating to the Debtors or a potential transaction with any customer, employee, supplier, or other contractual counterparty of the Debtors without the prior written consent of the Debtors. The due diligence period will end on the applicable Bid Deadline and subsequent to the applicable Bid Deadline the Debtors shall have no obligation to furnish any due diligence information; provided that the Debtors may continue to furnish any due diligence information with respect to the Assets after the Bid Deadline.

21. In connection with the provision of due diligence information to Acceptable Bidders, the Debtors shall not furnish any confidential information relating to the Debtors or a potential transaction to any person except an Acceptable Bidder or such Acceptable Bidder's duly authorized representatives to the extent provided in an applicable Confidentiality Agreement.

22. The Debtors and their advisors shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from Acceptable Bidders; provided that the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, may decline to provide such information to Acceptable Bidders who, in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment have not established, or who have raised doubt, that such Acceptable Bidders intend in good faith to, or have the capacity to, consummate the Sale Transaction. For any bidder who is a competitor, customer or supplier of the Debtors, is affiliated with any competitor, customer, or supplier of the Debtors, or otherwise has a business relationship with any competitor, customer or supplier of the Debtors, the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, reserve the right to withhold or modify any diligence materials that the Debtors determine are business-sensitive or otherwise inappropriate for disclosure to such bidder.

23. None of the Debtors or the Debtors' professionals or other advisors make any representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law, or otherwise regarding the any information provided in connection with due diligence, except, solely with respect to the Debtors, and solely to the extent that expressly stated in a definitive executed purchase agreement related to any Assets.

24. Each Acceptable Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access requested by the Debtors or their advisors or professionals regarding the ability of such Acceptable Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. Failure to comply with such a request may be a basis for the Debtors to determine that such bidder is no longer an Acceptable Bidder or that a bid made by such party is not a Qualified Bid.

25. Each Potential Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access by the Debtors or their advisors regarding such Potential Bidder and its contemplated Transaction.

VIII. Bid Deadline.

26. Binding bids must be submitted in writing to the above-referenced proposed counsel for the Debtors, either via email or by mail, by July 28, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (EST).

27. The Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline for any reason whatsoever in their reasonable business judgment for all or certain Acceptable Bidders.

IX. Cancellation of Auction.

28. The Debtors may determine to cancel the Auction for reasons consistent with their fiduciary obligations; provided that the Debtors shall provide all Qualified Bidders with advance notice of cancellation of the Auction by the later of (a) one (1) business day prior to the Auction or (b) the Baseline Bid Deadline. If no Qualified Bids other than the Stalking Horse Bid are received prior to the Bid Deadline, then the Debtors may determine to cancel the Auction and declare the Stalking Horse Bid as the Winning Bid.

29. The Debtors additionally reserve the right to adjourn the Auction at any time.

X. Auction.

30. If the Debtors receive a Qualified Bid (in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid) on or before the Bid Deadline, the Debtors may hold an Auction for the Assets. In that case, the Debtors shall cause a notice of confirming the receipt of the Qualified Bid(s) (which shall not list the Qualified Bids or identity of any Qualified Bidders) to be filed on the docket of these Chapter 11 Cases and may conduct the Auction in accordance with the Auction Procedures (as defined below) to determine the Winning Bidder in their reasonable business judgment with respect to the Assets.

31. The Auction will be conducted by the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, in accordance with the following procedures (the “Auction Procedures”):

- a. The Auction will take place on July 30, 2025, at the offices of Dentons US LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020, commencing at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time.
- b. Except as otherwise determined by the Debtors in their business judgment, only the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, any Qualified Bidders, the Committee, and, in each case, the respective representatives and professionals of the foregoing parties, shall be entitled to attend the Auction.
- c. Except as otherwise provided herein, only Qualified Bidders shall be entitled to bid at the Auction.
- d. The Qualified Bidders may appear virtually themselves or through duly-authorized representatives at the Auction.
- e. At the commencement of the Auction, the Debtors may announce additional procedural and related rules governing the Auction, including time periods available to all Qualified Bidders to submit successive bid(s).
- f. Bidding shall begin at the amount of the best or highest Qualified Bid (that Qualified Bid being the “Starting Bid”). Subsequent bids (each an “Overbid”) shall be an increase over the Starting Bid or previous Overbid, as applicable. Each Overbid shall provide net value to the estates in an amount equal to or greater than $720,000 more than the Starting Bid, and each subsequent Overbid must provide net value to the estates in an amount equal to or greater than $720,000 more than the previous Overbid (each, a “Minimum Overbid Increment”). The Debtors reserve the right to reduce or increase the Minimum Overbid Increments in their discretion, after consultation with the Committee. To the extent the Stalking Horse Bidder submits higher bids, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have the right (but not the obligation) to increase its bid by using, as a credit, the amount of the Bid Protections when determining whether the Stalking Horse Bidder has topped the previous bid by the required amount.
- g. Any Overbid made from time to time by a Qualified Bidder must remain open and binding on the Qualified Bidder until and unless (i) the Debtors accept a Bid submitted by another Qualified Bidder during the Auction as an Overbid and (ii) such prior Overbid is not selected as the Back-Up Bid. To the extent not previously provided (which will be determined by the Debtors in consultation with the Committee), a Qualified Bidder submitting an Overbid must submit at the Debtors' request (in consultation with the Committee), as part of its Overbid, written evidence that such Qualified Bidder has sufficient cash on hand or has received sufficient non-contingent debt and/or equity funding commitments to consummate the proposed transaction at the purchase price contemplated by such Overbid.

- h. Each Qualified Bidder will be permitted a reasonable time to respond to previous Bids at the Auction, as determined by the Debtors.
- i. During the course of the Auction, the Debtors shall, after submission of each Overbid, promptly inform each Qualified Bidder of the terms of the previous Bids and inform each Qualified Bidder which Overbid(s) reflect, in the Debtors' view, the highest or otherwise best Bid(s) for the applicable Assets.
- j. To remain eligible to participate in the Auction, in each round of bidding, (i) each Qualified Bidder must submit a Bid in such round of bidding that is a higher or otherwise better offer than the immediately preceding Bid submitted by a Qualified Bidder in such round of bidding and (ii) to the extent a Qualified Bidder fails to bid in such round of bidding or to submit a Bid in such round of bidding that is a higher or otherwise better offer than the immediately preceding Bid submitted by a Qualified Bidder in such round of bidding, as determined by the Debtors in their reasonable business judgment, following consultation with the Committee, such Qualified Bidder shall be disqualified from continuing to participate in the Auction.
- k. The Auction will be transcribed to ensure an accurate recording of the bidding at the Auction.
- l. Each Qualified Bidder will be required to confirm on the record that it has not engaged, and will not engage, in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the Sale Transaction.
- m. Each Qualified Bidder will be required to confirm that its Bid is a good faith, bona fide offer and it intends to consummate the Sale Transaction if selected as the Winning Bidder.
- n. The Debtors will not consider bids made after the Auction has been closed.
- o. The Debtors, in their reasonable business judgment and consistent with the Debtors' fiduciary obligations to maximize the value of their estates and to consider the interests of their stakeholders may reject, at any time before entry of an order of the Court approving a Winning Bid, any Bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) that the Debtors determine is (i) inadequate or insufficient, (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale Transaction, (iii) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other stakeholders, (iv) likely to lack the support of its stakeholders in seeking Court approval thereof, or (v) otherwise violative of any of the Debtors' fiduciary obligations.

- p. The Debtors have the right to request any additional information that will allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination as to a Qualified Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by their proposal and any further information that the Debtors believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any Bid made by a Qualified Bidder during the applicable Auction.
- q. The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable business judgment, in consultation with the Committee, to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things, (i) facilitate discussions between the Debtors and Qualified Bidders, (ii) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed, and (iii) provide Qualified Bidders the opportunity to provide the Debtors with such additional evidence as the Debtors, in their reasonable business judgment, may require that the Qualified Bidder has sufficient cash on hand or has received sufficient non-contingent debt and/or equity funding commitments to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing amount. The Debtors shall promptly file notice of such adjournment with the Court.
- r. The Debtors, in their business judgment and after consultation with the Committee, reserve the right to amend, waive, or otherwise modify the Auction Procedures at any time, including without limitation, the time, place, attendance, and format of the Auction in a manner that they determine will maximize value.

32. Nothing in the Auction Procedures will prevent the Debtors from exercising their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law.

XI. Acceptance of the Winning Bid and Approval of Sale Transaction.

33. The Auction shall continue until there is only one Qualified Bid that the Debtors determine, in their reasonable business judgment and in a manner consistent with the exercise of their fiduciary duties and outlined below in further detail, is the highest or otherwise best bid to purchase the Assets and the Debtors determine that further bidding is unlikely to result in a higher or better Qualified Bid. At that point, the Auction shall close.

34. When determining the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid, as compared to other Qualified Bids, the Debtors may consider the following factors in addition to any other factors that the Debtors deem appropriate in their business judgment: (i) the amount and nature of the total consideration to be paid by the Qualified Bidder, which includes but is not limited to, assumed liabilities (including administrative liabilities and cure payments), the amount of executory contracts and leased locations being assumed, and the types, amounts, and timing and other terms of the consideration to be paid by the Qualified Bidder; (ii) the likelihood of the Qualified Bidder's ability to close a transaction and the timing thereof; (iii) whether the Debtors' employees will be retained by the Qualified Bidder; (iv) the impact of the proposed Sale Transaction contemplated by the Qualified Bid on the Debtors' creditors or contract counterparties; (v) the net economic effect of any changes to the value to be received by each of the Debtors' estates from the transaction contemplated by the Bid Documents; (vi) the changes, if any, to the form purchase agreement provided by the Debtors (with fewer changes being viewed more favorably); and (vii) any other factors that may impact the Debtors' stakeholders.

35. The Winning Bidder, Back-Up Bidder, and the Debtors shall, as soon as commercially reasonable and practicable, complete and sign all agreements, contracts, instruments, or other documents evidencing and containing the terms upon which the Winning Bid and Back-Up Bid were made.

36. The Back-Up Bid, if any, will remain open and binding on the Back-Up Bidder until the first business day after the closing of the Sale with the Winning Bidder for the Assets bid upon by such Back-up Bidder; provided, that if the Stalking Horse Bid is selected as the Back-Up Bid, it must remain irrevocable only for so long as is required under the Stalking Horse APA. If the Winning Bidder fails to consummate the Winning Bid within the time set forth therein, the Debtors will be authorized, but not required, in consultation with the Committee, to select the Back-Up Bidder, if any, as the new Winning Bidder, in which case the Debtors shall proceed to consummate the Winning Bid of the new Winning Bidder.

37. The Qualified Bidder submitting the highest or best offer (the "Winning Bid") shall be deemed the "Winning Bidder." The Qualified Bidder submitting the next highest or best offer (the "Back-Up Bid") shall be deemed the "Back-Up Bidder." The Debtors shall file notice of the Winning Bid and Winning Bidder and Back-Up Bid and Back-Up Bidder with the Court as soon as reasonably practicable after the closing of the Auction. The Debtors shall also present the results of the Auction at the Sale Hearing, to be held on August 6, 2025 at 9:30 a.m. (EST). Objections to the Sale which are unrelated to the identity or consideration offered by a bidder, must be in writing and will spell out the nature of such objection, comply with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, and Local Rules and are due by August 1, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (EST). Objections to the Sale to the Winning Bidder, other than objections subject to the August 1, 2025 objection deadline, must be in writing and will spell out the nature of such objection, comply with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, and Local Rules and are due by August 5, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (EST). At the Sale Hearing, the Debtors shall seek entry of the Sale Order (which will have been filed on August 4, 2025, in advance of the hearing).

38. The Sale Hearing may be continued to a later date by the Debtors by sending notice to creditors or other parties in interest prior to, or making an announcement at, such Sale Hearing. No further notice of any such continuance will be required to be provided to any party.

XII. Return of Good Faith Deposit.

39. The Deposit of the Winning Bidder will, upon consummation of the Winning Bid, become property of the Debtors' estates and be credited to the portion of such Winning Bidder's Purchase Price.

40. If the Winning Bidder, if any, fails to consummate the Sale Transaction, then the Winning Bidder's Deposit will be irrevocably forfeited to the Debtors and may be retained by the Debtors as liquidated damages, in addition to any and all rights, remedies, or causes of action that may be available to the Debtors, pursuant to the applicable asset purchase agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, for the avoidance of doubt, the Deposit submitted by the Stalking Horse Bidder pursuant to the Stalking Horse APA shall be treated, returned to the Stalking Horse Bidder, or forfeited to the Debtors' estates solely in accordance with the terms of the Stalking Horse APA.

41. The Deposits of any unsuccessful Qualified Bidders, including the Back-Up Bidder, will be promptly returned following the closing of the Sale.

42. All such deposits shall be held in escrow and at no time shall be deemed property of the Debtors' estates absent further order of the Court.

XIII. Reservation of Rights

43. The Debtors reserve their rights, in consultation with the Committee, to modify these Bidding Procedures or to waive any provision or requirement herein in their reasonable business judgment and in a manner consistent with the maximization of their estates in any manner that will best promote the goals of the bidding process, or impose, at or before the Auction, additional customary terms and conditions on the sale of the Assets, including, without limitation: (a) extending the deadlines set forth in the Bidding Procedures; (b) adjourning the Auction at or prior to the Auction and/or adjourning the Sale Hearing prior to such hearing or in open Court without further notice; (c) adding procedural rules that are reasonably necessary or advisable under the circumstances for conducting the Auction; (d) canceling the Auction; (e) rejecting any or all bids or Qualified Bids if, in the Debtors' reasonable, good-faith business judgment, following consultation with the Committee, the Debtors determine that such Qualified Bid is (i) inadequate or insufficient, (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code or related rules or the terms set forth herein, or (iii) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors; and (f) adjusting the applicable Minimum Overbid Increments. The Debtors further reserve the right, at any time, and in consultation with the Committee, for any reason, in their reasonable business judgment and consistent with their fiduciary duties, to decline to pursue the sale contemplated by these Bidding Procedures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) any modification to these Bidding Procedures which extends the timelines included herein shall be subject to the consent of the DIP Lender and the Stalking Horse Bidder, each of whose consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; (y) any such modification shall treat the Stalking Horse Bidder as a Qualified Bidder; and (z) any modification to these Bidding Procedures shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Bankruptcy Code, or the Bankruptcy Rules. The Debtors shall provide written notice of any such modification to the Stalking Horse Bidder and each Qualified Bidder (and their respective counsel) as soon as reasonably practicable (email shall suffice).

XIV. Consent to Jurisdiction

44. All Qualified Bidders at the Auction shall be deemed to have consented to the core jurisdiction of the Court and waived any right to a jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the Auction, Sale Transaction, the construction and enforcement of these Bidding Procedures or the Order, and any other agreement entered into in connection with any proposed Sale Transaction, as applicable.

45. Any parties raising a dispute relating to these Bidding Procedures must request that such dispute be heard by the Court on an expedited basis.

The Debtors’ mailing address is 20550 SW 115th Avenue Tualatin, OR 97062.

² Capitalized terms used but not defined in this notice have the meanings given to them in the Order or Motion, as applicable.

to take place on August 6, 2025 at 9:30 a.m. (EST) before the Honorable Chief Judge Michael B. Kaplan, at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey, 402 East State Street, Courtroom 8, Trenton, NJ 08608.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, pursuant to the Bidding Procedures and the terms of any Winning Bid, the Debtors may assume and assign to the Winning Bidder the contract(s) or agreement(s) listed on Exhibit A to which you are a counterparty, upon approval of the Sale Transaction. The Debtors have conducted a review of their books and records and have determined that the cure payments (“Cure Payments”) for unpaid monetary obligations under such contract(s) is as set forth on Exhibit A.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that if you disagree with the proposed Cure Payments, object to a proposed assignment to the Winning Bidder of any Contract, or dispute the ability of the Winning Bidder to provide adequate assurance of future performance with respect to any Contract, or otherwise object to the applicable Sale Transaction, your objection must: (a) be in writing; (b) comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules, and any order governing the administration of these chapter 11 cases; (c) state with specificity the nature of the objection and, if the objection pertains to the proposed Cure Payments, state the correct Cure Payments alleged to be owed to the objecting contract counterparty, together with any applicable and appropriate documentation in support thereof; and (d) be filed with the Court and served and actually received no later than August 5, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (EST) (the “Objection Deadline”) by (i) the Debtors, (ii) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, (iii) counsel to the official committee of unsecured creditors appointed in these chapter 11 cases, (iv) the Winning Bidder and (v) any other party that has filed a notice of appearance in these chapter 11 cases.

PLEASE THAT FURTHER NOTICE that, notwithstanding anything herein, the mere listing of any Contract on this Contract Assumption Notice or any Supplemental Assumption Notice does not require or guarantee that such Contract will be assumed by the Debtors at any time or assumed and assigned, and all rights of the Debtors and the Winning Bidder with respect to such Contracts are reserved. Moreover, the Debtors explicitly reserve the right, in their reasonable discretion, to seek to reject or assume each Contract pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the procedures allowing the Debtors and/or the Winning Bidder, as applicable, to designate any Contract as either rejected or assumed on a post-closing basis.
